Christ the King

Live at 5.00pm Sunday on YouTube

This Sunday is the last Sunday of the Church year. The new church year begins next Sunday, on the first Sunday of Advent. Today we remember that Jesus is King, Lord of all. Music sung by the Girls' Choir and the Boys' Choir.

Margaret Tuck RIP

Margaret Tuck's family have asked us to let Cookham residents know that they have set up a memorial page on localgiving.org/fundraising in Margaret's memory for Elizabeth House. Margaret was a member there for a number of years and Elizabeth House played a great part in Margaret's life. Her parents visited from the day it opened and over the years, she spent many happy hours lending a hand. In the last few months she also received much needed support from the team and the volunteers. Please help us celebrate Margaret's engagement in the Cookham community by helping to raise funds in her memory.

Be Aware - Email Scam

I am sorry to say that the scammers have been causing mischief. There have been emails that are supposedly from Fr Nick. They may address you by name and have Fr Nick's name at the top, but if you check the email address, you will see that it is incorrect. Please be careful as they are very convincing. Do not reply as they will ask you for money or vouchers. If you are in any doubt at all, please forward the email to me at the office or give me a call. Readings for Sunday 22nd November Christ the King

Collect

Eternal Father,
whose Son Jesus Christ ascended to
the throne of heaven
that he might rule over all things as Lord and King:
keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit
and in the bond of peace,
and bring the whole created order to
worship at his feet;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Readings

Ephesians 1:15-end

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, "Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me." Then the righteous will answer him, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?" And the king will answer them, "Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." Then he will say to those at his left hand, "You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me." Then they also will answer, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?" Then he will answer them, "Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me." And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.'

Prayer

Stir up, O Lord, the wills of your faithful people;
that they, plenteously bringing forth
the fruit of good works,
may by you be plenteously rewarded;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen
