A personal note from Fr Nick

I wanted to share this with you all.

Early in 2021, I sensed that something wasn't 'quite right' and went to the doctors and subsequently a consultant for a series of tests, with the result that in January this year I was diagnosed with Parkinson's. This is being kept at bay with mild medication and does not trouble me too much at the moment, although I have a slight tremor on the left side, affecting walking and fine motor skills. I'm also more anxious, and may seem a little preoccupied, and perhaps even a little more grumpy than usual! I know I will have your love, support and prayers as I come to terms with it, and I will continue to serve to the best of my ability.

God bless, Nick

Intercessions

Would you like to read or lead the intercessions some Sunday morning? We only have a handful of people that help regularly, and we are most grateful for them. If you would like to help to enrich our worship in this way, please talk to Bernadette or Mark.

Many thanks.

Singing through the Church's Year TONIGHT at 6.00pm

Please come along and support our choirs!

Although all of our choirs were not asked to be part of the 2022 festival, the Choir Quartet sings on behalf of all of them, so please come along and show your support. Richard Simmonds will also be there to guide us on our journey through the Church's year. During the first Lockdown, when the country needed spiritual fulfilment the most, the online offerings of the Lockdown Quartet guided Cookham through the sights and sounds of the Church's year. They are reunited once again for this special concert to perform the hymns and anthems that kept the unmistakable Holy Trinity sound alive through the long months of choral silence. Tickets are only £6.00 (the cheapest of all the Festival Tickets and a real bargain!) available on the door
